Auction Property. Auctioner seller offering property via online auction. Selling at or above $1.2M. Bid online beginning Tuesday, November 9 at Interluxe.com. House previews begin on Friday, November 5, to view this stunning property. Welcome home to a true one-of-a-kind, historic and walled-in home overlooking Belleair Country Club, Florida's oldest golf club. From the minute you step in, you quickly realize that every brick and tile was laid with precision and care. Once inside, the beautiful custom-made wrought-iron work on the staircase catches your eye immediately. From there, make your way to the incredible great room, perfect for entertaining. The tall beamed ceilings are complemented by the exquisite fireplace. As you explore the first floor, discover the immaculately finished dining room and chef's kitchen fitted with all Wolf and Sub-Zero stainless steel appliances. Immerse yourself in the sunroom, with 180 degrees of windows to enjoy the sun while staying cool indoors. Make your way up the beautiful dark wood grand staircase to find four of six total bedrooms, including the stunning and spacious master bedroom with sparkling water views of Clearwater Pass. On the opposite side of the home, enjoy another staircase to the other two bedrooms with a full bath and living room, with perfect potential to serve as an in-law suite or family wing. This captivating home boasts a basement, which could be converted to a wine cellar. Sitting on a large, walled-in lot and unique to the area, this home is perfect for anyone desiring privacy. The beautiful swimming pool is complemented by the oversized travertine deck, and if you want to spend a day in the sand and ocean, you are just minutes away from some of the nation's best and award-winning beaches. Agent is not engaging in auctioneering activities.
